

MODERNIST HOUSE WITH TERRACE

The house is situated in the Sarriá – San Gervasio district, in the zone called El Putget which forms a hill in the city, giving the property extraordinary views of the city, the sea and the mountains of Vallvidrera – Collserola and Tibidabo. The property is composed of a plot of 790 m² of surface in rectangular shape, with the 11-meters front on the street side and the rear part bordering with the Putget park. In the plot there is a tower which marks the modernist, 20th century character with its original ornamentation and distribution – the property was created to be a home of bourgeoisie family from Barcelona. It's in good condition – both structure and decoration. The tower is situated on the plot and adapted to the hill (of more than 30%), forming a platform that allows...
