

130M2 NEWLY REFURBISHED APARTMENT

This beautiful apartment, located in Barcelona, is situated in an impressive regal building which dates back to 1910. It is excellently connected by public transport systems and its central location allows its inhabitants to enjoy all that the city has to offer. It is a third-floor apartment opening up to both sides of the building: on one it overlooks the street and provides plenty of morning sun, and on the other it opens up to a peaceful interior courtyard and fills the space with sunlight at midday and in the afternoon. It has a total surface area of 130m2. The interior has been totally reformed combining the building's beautiful original elements, designed in modernist style, with practical and modern additions. The space is divided between an entrance hall, two bedrooms with...
