HOUSE WITH TERRACE 5 MINUTES FROM THE SEA

Newly built and high standing building located a few meters from Rambla del Poblenou and five minutes walking to the sea, in a pedestrian and very quiet street. The building is divided into two houses of three heights plus terrace. It has been designed by a famous Catalan architect who has opted for a modern and functional style, taking care of detail the maximum use of space and light in each room and betting on a set of volumes on a different scale. The house is very bright because it has natural light sources both at the front of the building, where the main wall is made of glass, as at the back where there are large windows facing a very sunny yard. The roofs of the first floor are very high, which has allowed the creation of an open space in a higher level; The whole house is...
